Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On November 9 we awoke to the news that Proposal 3 had passed, altering our state constitution to allow for unregulated and unsafe abortion on-demand in Michigan. As people of faith who witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ and His teachings, we are deeply saddened by this grave assault on the dignity and sanctity of unborn, innocent human life. We grieve for the many women who will continue to be harmed by abortion in our state. And most importantly, we grieve for the lives who will be lost because of this unjust and perverse law.

Over the last several months, advocates for life across the Archdiocese of Detroit and the entire state of Michigan worked tirelessly to spread the truth about Proposal 3, imploring voters to make an informed decision at the ballot box. They have been clear about the devastating impact of the vague and broad language of Proposal 3, invalidating dozens of laws and safety regulations. I offer my deepfelt gratitude to all who prayed, spread awareness, voted, and otherwise worked against this proposal; and I share in their sorrow at the outcome.

Abortion is now legal in Michigan at an unprecedented level, and millions of lives are at stake. We must pray and ask God for his mercy upon us for allowing this evil to happen in our state. For this reason, I want to invite all the faithful to join me in the first two weeks of Advent, from November 27 to December 9, in doing penance, giving alms, praying, and fasting. We must use these spiritual practices to make reparations for the great sin of abortion in our midst.

We also renew our commitment to accompanying women and families in need, with greater resolve than ever. This work is more critical now, as the unborn have been stripped of their basic right to life and their mothers face the harmful lie that the death of their children is a solution to their struggles. In response to the passing of Proposal 3, we must step forward with no judgment, open arms, and effective resources to help women reject the "solution" of death and empower them to choose life for their children.

In the Archdiocese of Detroit, we do this largely through Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan, our charitable arm, and through the Archdiocese's Evangelization and Missionary Discipleship Department. In particular, Walking with Moms in Need (WWMIN) is a ministry to help parishioners identify and create local resources that provide assistance to pregnant and parenting moms in need, and Project Rachel is an important ministry for individuals who have been harmed by abortion. I urge you to please consider joining a WWMIN ministry at your parish or getting involved in other pro-life works of mercy in southeast Michigan. For more information and to get involved in these ministries, visit aod.org/walking-with-moms-in-need and evangelicalcharity.org.

We will continue our efforts to build a culture of life in which abortion is unthinkable, all families receive the support they need, and the dignity of all people is recognized. We do this with confidence in the ultimate victory of Christ, whose resurrection to life has defeated the powers of death.

St. Gianna Molla, the patroness of mothers, physicians, and unborn children, pray for us.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, who carried the Savior in her womb, pray for us.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Most Reverend Allen H. Vigneron
Archbishop of Detroit

Readings of the week for Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

First Reading - 2 Samuel 5:1-3

In those days, all the tribes of Israel came to David in Hebron and said:

"Here we are, your bone and your flesh. In days past, when Saul was our king, it was you who led the Israelites out and brought them back.

And the LORD said to you,

'You shall shepherd my people Israel and shall be commander of Israel.'"

When all the elders of Israel came to David in Hebron, King David made an agreement with them there before the LORD, and they anointed him king of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 122:1-2, 3-4, 4-5

R. Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

I rejoiced because they said to me,
"We will go up to the house of the LORD."
And now we have set foot
within your gates, O Jerusalem.

R. Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Jerusalem, built as a city
with compact unity.
To it the tribes go up,
the tribes of the LORD.

R. Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

According to the decree for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
In it are set up judgment seats,
seats for the house of David.

R. Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Second Reading - Colossians 1:12-20

Brothers and sisters:

Let us give thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light.

He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him.

He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

He is the head of the body, the church.

He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Alleluia - Mark 11:9, 10

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading - Luke 23:35-43

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said,
"He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God."
Even the soldiers jeered at him.

As they approached to offer him wine they called out,
"If you are King of the Jews, save yourself."
Above him there was an inscription that read,
"This is the King of the Jews."

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying,

"Are you not the Christ?
Save yourself and us."

The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply,
"Have you no fear of God,

for you are subject to the same condemnation?
And indeed, we have been condemned justly,
for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes,
but this man has done nothing criminal."

Then he said,

"Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

He replied to him,

"Amen, I say to you,
today you will be with me in Paradise."

Communion

Good, Good Father

1. I've heard a thousand stories of what they think You're like, but I've heard the tender whisper of love in the dead of night. You tell me that You're pleased, and that I'm never alone.

REFRAIN

it's who I am, it's who I am.

2. I've seen many searching for answers far and wide, But I know we're all searching for answers only You provide. Because You know just what we need before we say a word.

3. Love so undeniable, I can hardly speak. Peace so unexplainable, I can hardly think as You call me deeper still, as You call me deeper still, as You call me deeper still into love, love, love. (to Refrain)

BRIDGE

You are per - fect in all of Your ways. You are per - fect in all of Your ways.

You are per - fect in all of Your way to us. (repeat, then Refrain)

O God Beyond All Praising
Music Notation: Hymnal #598

*O God beyond all praising, we worship you today
and sing the love amazing that songs cannot repay;
For we can only wonder at every gift you send,
at blessings without number and mercies without end:
We lift our hearts before you and wait upon your word,
we honor and adore you, our great and mighty Lord.*

*Then hear, O gracious Savior, accept the love we bring,
that we who know your favor may serve you as our king;
And whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill,
we'll triumph through our sorrows and rise to bless you still:
To marvel at your beauty and glory in your ways,
and make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise.*

The Warming Center is Coming Back!

The Warming Center will be returning to St. Mary from Sunday, 1/1/23 through Sunday, 1/15/23. This year we will be limiting our capacity to 40 overnight guests. To keep things safe, our guests will have a recent negative COVID 19 test, be tested as needed at the day center and kept separate if ill, from everyone while with us. All guests and volunteers will also wear masks.

We need your help to make this mission a success! A Sign Up Genius will be open on Saturday, 12/3/22. This is where volunteers can sign up to help feed and provide shelter for our homeless neighbors.

We are in need of volunteers as follows:

- Each night from 6:30pm-8:30pm to help prepare and serve dinner.
- Overnight volunteers are needed for each of our available shifts (9:30pm-2am or 2am-7am).
- Morning volunteers (5:30am-7am) serve breakfast, clean up and ensure our guests are ready to leave by 6:45am.

As always, our greatest need will be for overnight and morning volunteers. St. Mary school parents can earn service hours for working one of these shifts!

Hello Families,

We welcome you to Mass today!

Are you looking for a place to change a diaper or a quiet space to console your child? We would like to direct you towards the altar and statue of Mary (see picture). Through the doors on the left there is a bathroom with a pull down changing table. If you keep walking straight, there is a large room with two changing tables, a rocking chair and benches. The speakers inside allow you to listen to the Mass, but we do encourage you to head back to your pew once your child is clean/consolated.

Please note: There is no changing table located in the bathroom in the vestibule, as there is not enough space for one.

We are glad you are bringing your children to Mass! What joy they bring to all, especially Jesus!
