Prayer for Life and Right Laws

Almighty ever-living God,
 you bestow the gift of life
 as you form each of us in our mother's womb.
 Look on our nation, state, and community
 and awaken in every heart
 reverence for life.
 Protect our state from unjust laws.
 In your Name, bring to defeat
 every attack against the sacredness of life.
 Safeguard the rights of parents,
 whom you have entrusted
 with the care and formation of their children.
 Help all who believe in Jesus
 to proclaim the Gospel of Life to their neighbors.
 Dispel every anxiety and fear.
 Strengthen the bond between parents and their unborn child.
 May mothers and fathers accept and nurture the gift of life made in your image and likeness.

Our Lady, Queen of the Family, pray for us!
 St. Michael the Archangel, pray for us!
 St. Joseph, Protector of the Unborn, pray for us!

Jesus said "Follow Me" and so we are offering an Evening Bible Study at St. Mary in the Fellowship Center. We will study Follow Me - Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John. It is an eight-week course which began on October 10 and concludes on December 12. The time is 7-9 pm and the workbook can be purchased at Ascensionpress.com. This Study is open to all - those who have never read the Bible and those who are more familiar with its teaching, love and guidance. Let's learn more about Jesus - "When we see Jesus, we see the face of God." (Pg. 2 Follow Me)

Please contact Jeanne Hutko at jeanne_hutko@yahoo.com or 734-546-9378 to register or get more information.

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary TimeFirst Reading - 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

It happened that seven brothers with their mother were arrested and tortured with whips and scourges by the king, to force them to eat pork in violation of God's law. One of the brothers, speaking for the others, said: "What do you expect to achieve by questioning us? We are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors."

At the point of death he said:

"You accursed fiend, you are depriving us of this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up to live again forever. It is for his laws that we are dying."

After him the third suffered their cruel sport.

He put out his tongue at once when told to do so, and bravely held out his hands, as he spoke these noble words:

"It was from Heaven that I received these; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again."

Even the king and his attendants marveled at the young man's courage, because he regarded his sufferings as nothing. After he had died, they tortured and maltreated the fourth brother in the same way.

When he was near death, he said,

"It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him; but for you, there will be no resurrection to life."

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 17:1, 5-6, 8, 15

R. (15b) Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.
Hear, O LORD, a just suit;
attend to my outcry;
hearken to my prayer from lips without deceit.

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.
My steps have been steadfast in your paths,
my feet have not faltered.
I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God;
incline your ear to me; hear my word.

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.
Keep me as the apple of your eye,
hide me in the shadow of your wings.
But I in justice shall behold your face;
on waking I shall be content in your presence.

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Second Reading - 2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5

Brothers and sisters:

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.

Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified, as it did among you, and that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked people, for not all have faith. But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one. We are confident of you in the Lord that what we instruct you, you are doing and will continue to do. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

Alleluia - Revelation 1:5a, 6b

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Jesus Christ is the firstborn of the dead;
to him be glory and power, forever and ever

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading - Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants for his brother.

Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless. Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless.

Finally the woman also died.

Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be? For all seven had been married to her."

Jesus said to them,

"The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.

They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise.

That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord, ' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

OPPOSING PROPOSAL 3: PART 2 of 2

We've used last week to shine a spotlight on the extraordinarily broad language used in Proposal 3 (the "Reproductive Freedom for All" proposal) that will appear on the ballot this November. The proposal does far more than simply codify Roe v. Wade in our State Constitution. As we've discussed, Proposal 3 invalidates more than two dozen Michigan pro-life laws, authorizes minors to obtain abortion and sterilization without parental consent or even notice, effectively allows abortion through all 9 months of pregnancy, and prohibits the State from enacting laws that would protect an unborn baby's life or even to stop abortions based on sex, race, or disability. At least women would be protected from unsafe abortion practices, right? Not at all. Proposal 3 authorizes the State to pass limited laws protecting the health of the mother, but only "consistent with accepted clinical standards of practice and evidence-based medicine." Who establishes "accepted clinical standards of practice" for abortions? Abortionists! Unlike any other area of medical practice, where doctors and nurses are subjected to all manner of laws to ensure patient safety, abortionists alone would get to decide whether they want to follow a Michigan health and safety law. If abortionists disagree that hospital admitting privileges are important, they can decline to follow a law that requires them. If abortionists think that laws regulating the safety standards for surgical centers are unnecessary for abortion clinics, they can ignore them with impunity. No matter how a voter feels about abortion, Michigan's Constitution should not be amended to give abortionists complete control over deciding what Michigan health and safety laws they must follow.

In addition to violating the Church's teaching that every human life is sacred and must be protected from conception, the proposal allows minors to obtain sterilizations as well as abortions without parental consent or even notice, effectively allows abortion on demand through 9 months of pregnancy, prevents the State from protecting unborn life or stopping discrimination based on a baby's sex, race, or disability, and effectively exempts abortionists from health and safety regulations. It gets worse. In subsection (3), Proposal 3 says that the state shall not "penalize, prosecute, or otherwise take adverse action against someone for aiding or assisting" a mother in obtaining an abortion. That means if a teacher or counselor takes a student to obtain an abortion without notifying the child's parents, there are no legal consequences. If someone assists with an abortion—even if they have no medical license or training whatsoever—there can also be no legal consequences. Most bizarrely, if an abortionist engages in gross negligence and severely harms or kills the mother as well as her child during an abortion, he will have a constitutional defense to any malpractice claim: Michigan's Constitution would prevent the State from imposing an "adverse action," i.e., a state-court judgment, against him. No matter how a voter feels about abortion, Michigan's Constitution should not be amended to allow non-medical providers to assist in abortions and to absolve abortionists of medical-malpractice liability.

Shockingly, the proposal also authorizes minors to obtain abortions and sterilizations without parental consent or even notice, effectively allows abortion on demand through 9 months of pregnancy, prevents the State from protecting unborn life or stopping discrimination based on a baby's sex, race, or disability, effectively exempts abortionists from health and safety regulations, and permits non-medical professionals to assist with abortions while potentially absolving abortionists from medical-malpractice lawsuits. Is it any surprise that Proposal 3's supporters did not publish the proposal's full text on their website until after petition signature gathering was over? There are plenty of additional provisions of Proposal 3 that we could address, but we only have time for one more. Subsection (2) says that the "state shall not discriminate in the protection or enforcement of this fundamental right." The Michigan Supreme Court has previously held that Michigan can limit taxpayer funding for abortions. But supreme courts of Alaska, California, Massachusetts, Minnesota, and New Jersey have all held that an independent state constitutional right to abortion means the state cannot restrict public funding of abortions. And Proposal 3's anti-discrimination law makes it a near certainty the same will happen here. So not only will abortion on demand be the law in Michigan, but all of us will likely have to pay for it—even if it violates our deepest religious beliefs about the value and dignity of unborn, human life. No matter how a voter feels about abortion, Proposal 3 is terrifying. This extreme proposal would make Michigan an outlier, not only in the United States but around the world. And the Michigan Legislature and courts would have very few tools to do anything to combat the proposal's language, which appears intentionally overbroad.

Please tell everyone you know: vote "NO" on Proposal 3 on November 8th.
