Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading - Exodus 17:8-13

In those days, Amalek came and waged war against Israel.
Moses, therefore, said to Joshua,
"Pick out certain men, and tomorrow go out and engage Amalek in battle. I will be standing on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand."
So Joshua did as Moses told him:
he engaged Amalek in battle after Moses had climbed to the top of the hill with Aaron and Hur.
As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek had the better of the fight.
Moses' hands, however, grew tired; so they put a rock in place for him to sit on.
Meanwhile Aaron and Hur supported his hands,
one on one side and one on the other,
so that his hands remained steady till sunset.
And Joshua mowed down Amalek and his people
with the edge of the sword.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 121:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

R. Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
I lift up my eyes toward the mountains;
whence shall help come to me?
My help is from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

R. Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
May he not suffer your foot to slip;
may he slumber not who guards you:
indeed he neither slumbers nor sleeps,
the guardian of Israel.

R. Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
The LORD is your guardian; the LORD is your shade;
he is beside you at your right hand.
The sun shall not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.

R. Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
The LORD will guard you from all evil;
he will guard your life.
The LORD will guard your coming and your going,
both now and forever.

R. Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Second Reading - 2 Timothy 3:14–4:2

Beloved:
Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed,
because you know from whom you learned it,
and that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom
for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.
All Scripture is inspired by God
and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God
may be competent, equipped for every good work.
I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus,
who will judge the living and the dead,
and by his appearing and his kingly power:
proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching.

Alleluia - Hebrews 4:12

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The word of God is living and effective,
discerning reflections and thoughts of the heart.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading - Luke 18:1-8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary.

He said, "There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being.
And a widow in that town used to come to him and say,
'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.'
For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought,
'While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me
I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'"
The Lord said, "Pay attention to what the dishonest judge says.
Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones
who call out to him day and night?
Will he be slow to answer them?
I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily.
But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

MICHIGAN CATHOLIC CONFERENCE

Why We Must OPPOSE PROPOSAL 3

Some voters may believe proposal 3 would simply reinstate Roe v. Wade. But that claim is false and there is more at stake here.

The proposal has been framed as just ensuring abortion is legal like it was before Roe was struck down. It was portrayed in a recent poll question as merely establishing abortion as a right in the constitution. But for voters to make an informed decision on the proposal, they need to know that it is NOT simply making sure abortion is legal in a post-Roe Michigan. The proposal goes much further than that: It allows abortion for any woman or girl at any point in the pregnancy for any reason — and then some.

It starts in the first sentence of the language, where it says, "every individual has a fundamental right to reproductive freedom." Because it says "individual," and not adult, the reproductive rights afforded in this amendment would be applied to children. What kind of reproductive rights would also apply to children? Children would have a constitutional right to seek sterilization and contraception. Those terms are listed right in the language.

If the amendment was only about restoring the abortion rights of Roe, why did the proposal's authors include sterilization and contraceptives? And why are children included in these rights? Further, the proposal summary text explains the proposal will "invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment." Neither the amendment nor the summary text, however, details what state laws will be invalidated. Legal experts believe dozens of laws could be invalidated, including the parental consent requirement for children seeking an abortion, because children would have a right to an abortion under the amendment.

Other laws that would fall include those that ban late-term and third trimester abortions. Under the provisions of the amendment, an abortion could be permitted at any stage of pregnancy for almost any reason. Laws that regulate the quality and safety of abortion facilities would be gone under the amendment, as would the requirement that only physicians perform abortions.

Taxpayers would be forced to pay for abortions, as the amendment language says the state cannot discriminate in enforcing reproductive rights. If tax dollars can pay for other medical procedures, why would tax dollars for abortions be banned under this amendment? That is not how things were even when Roe was in effect. Based on those examples alone, the proposal is not simply about ensuring legal access to abortion.

Unfortunately, advocates for this amendment will say it is only about making sure abortion is legal and accessible, yet the language they crafted for the constitution goes far beyond that notion. If more people know that, they might be more reluctant to support such a dangerous and extreme proposal.

As Catholics, we recognize that “Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception” (CCC 2270). Read the 300-plus words of the amendment or the 100-word summary and see how dangerous it is for women and children, extreme in taking away parental rights, and wrong for Michigan. And remember to vote NO on Proposal 3 in November.

FUNERAL LUNCH VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Since death is often unexpected and overwhelming to the grieving family, it is important to have a friendly, comfortable place to visit, share a meal and reminisce about their loved one. Before Covid, that was what our committee provided. Our grieving families were always most appreciative and we received untold blessings ourselves. We are restarting our funeral lunch ministry but need some help.

We have a sufficient number of volunteers to bake desserts and serve at our luncheons. However, our "core team" has grown smaller in the ensuing years and we would like to increase the number of volunteers on that team. The time commitment for a funeral luncheon is usually from about 8:30am – 1:30pm. It is not necessary for every core team volunteer to be present at every luncheon – we just need 1 or 2 every time. And, since funerals are generally unpredictable, volunteers may need to be available on short notice.

Core team responsibilities include:

1. Checking pantry supplies beforehand
2. Contacting other volunteers, i.e., bakers and servers.
3. Setting tables with cloths, cutlery, etc.
4. Setting buffet tables with catered foods and desserts.
5. Cleaning-up and putting things away.

We feel that this is a wonderful and appreciated ministry. If you feel that this might be for you, come work with us a few times before committing. We predict that you will love it too.

If you are interested in joining us, or want more information, please contact George Krinke in the Parish Office at 248-547-1818, ext. 205; or Email: gkrinke@st-mary.org or Elaine Finn at 248-259-3495 (texts are OK) or Email: jalaine61@yahoo.com.

ST. MARY VOLUNTEER HELP WANTED FOR ONE-TIME PROJECTS:

We are looking for a few young adult and family volunteers that could help rake leaves and do some yard cleanup on Saturday morning October 29. We have two places where some yard cleanup is needed:

1) Mary's Children Family Center in Clawson
2) Homebound / Senior Citizen backyard cleanup

Both activities would begin at St. Mary with a short prayer in the outside Mary garden. Then volunteers would be sent to their work assignments. Two to three hours should be planned for either activity.

If interested in volunteering or inquiring about more information, please contact George Krinke in the parish office or email: gkrinke@st-mary.org

- Snacks: Peanut butter or cheese crackers, Nutri-grain bars, chips, Chewy bars, fruit cups
- Canned fruits (pears, peaches, apple sauce)
- Juice packs, bottled water, fruit drinks
- Hot and cold cereals
- Peanut butter, jelly

FORGOTTEN HARVEST

Nine people from St. Mary volunteered to pack 9,639 pounds of food at Forgotten Harvest on Friday morning, October 7.

They invested a few hours so people in our community would not go hungry.

Our thanks to Karen Sayles (not pictured) for coordinating this activity.

Prayers for Pregnancy and Infant Loss

Bishop Robert Fisher will celebrate Mass at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament on Sunday, October 23, 2022 at 11 a.m. Parents and families of pregnancy and infant loss are invited to receive a memorial rosary and a special blessing from the bishop. Following Mass, there will be an opportunity to inscribe the names of children lost to miscarriage and stillbirth in the memorial Book of Innocents, and to venerate a relic of St. Gerard. Couples praying for the gift of children will also be invited to receive prayers and a blessing. Please RSVP by Thursday, October 20.

Jesus said "Follow Me" and so we are offering an Evening Bible Study at St. Mary in the Fellowship Center. We will study Follow Me - Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John. It is an 8-week course which began October 10, and concludes on December 12. The time is 7-9 pm and the workbook can be purchased at Ascensionpress.com. This Study is open to all - those who have never read the Bible and those who are more familiar with its teaching, love and guidance. Let's learn more about Jesus - "When we see Jesus, we see the face of God." (Pg. 2 Follow Me)

Please contact Jeanne Hutko atjeanne_hutko@yahoo.com or 734-546-9378 to register or get more information.
